Payment, membership and refunds policy

Before entry to our sessions all payments due are to be paid online via our booking system or via the link sent once you have become a member of the club.

Trials are available to book and attend only once after which you must decide if you want to return. It is then obligatory for you to pay the membership and remaining fees for the term.

GFA (gymnastics for all), Preschool Assisted and non and SEND are booked in 6 to 8 week block bookings. These must be paid in full once you are a member of the club prior to start of each term. You will be charged for the whole term before each term commences. If for some reason you cannot attend the full fee is still due.

All members for these classes require a valid IGA membership to participate, this is charged annually at £25 per gymnast.

Tiny gym should be paid before entry on a pay as you go basis also booked via the online booking system.

For all these classes, SPAGA operates a no refund policy if your child is unable to attend or reaches the session more than 10mins late as per our late attendance policy.

If for any reason a class is cancelled by SPAGA we will offer a full refund for that session or a credit on your account.

Any injuries that take place under our care will result in the remaining sessions booked to be refunded or credited to your account until your child is fit and well to return. Parents must communicate this to the club via email at spagymnasticsacademy@gmail.com within a week of injury taking place.

Trials are non-refundable if not attended however they can be re booked for the next available session on one occasion only.
